

Get Ready for Kindergarten with Treehouse

Only 40%

of children ages 3 and 4 in Utah attend any preschool.* In some neighborhoods in Ogden that number drops to 30%.

Kids Count Data Center, Annie E. Casey Foundation (2013)*

9 DISTRICTS

in Northern Utah are partnering with Treehouse Museum to distribute readiness materials to parents and children.

61,476

sets of the Treehouse's "Get Ready for Kindergarten with Miss Bindergarten" materials have been distributed since 2013 at Kindergarten registrations in Northern Utah.

Only 4 of 10

children on average nationally and in Utah are ready for Kindergarten.

A Matter of Equity: Preschool in America, US Department of Education (2015)*

Only 3 of 10

children in some Northern Utah schools are ready for the start of Kindergarten.

Beginning of year scores reported by schools in partner districts for 2013*

Average Gain
17%

on assessment given pre and post use of the materials at home over 4 to 5 months. Some educators reported gains of up to 83% for individual children. 82% of parents reported the materials helped them understand how to prepare their children for the start of school.

Kindergarten assessment scores reported by schools in 4 of 9 districts in 2018*

A child's first and most important teacher is their parent. But, parents are often unsure what skills their children need to master. Treehouse Museum in Ogden, Utah is committed to providing high quality materials that make getting ready for Kindergarten child's play. Learn more at www.treehousemuseum.org or call 801-528-4708.